

Story Stones

Some examples of story stones that others have done.
Can you make your own designs?

Read through the Easter story again. Find some stones (don't forget to wash them if you bring them in from the garden) and using paints design each stone to represent part of the Easter story.

Once done, you can tell the story again in your own words.

And don't forget to send us some pictures on Facebook!!