

Edible Easter garden

Have a go at making yourself an Easter garden that is completely edible. When you've finished, read the story of Easter and enjoy eating your garden as you listen

For each garden, you will need:

- a round plain biscuit
- a jammy round biscuit
- green butter cream or green water icing
- a mini egg
- decorative sprinkles

Cover the plain biscuit with the icing = grass.

Next, place a jammy biscuit (with one side cut off) at the back of the grass for the tomb and a mini egg in front of the tomb for the stone.

Finally, decorate the grass with sprinkles (for flowers).
